

HER LIFE HANGS BY ONLY A THREAD

None of Attending Physicians Believe Mrs. McKinley Can Recover.

LITTLE BETTER TODAY

The President Blames Himself For Taking His Wife On the Trip.

RAY OF HOPE AT TEN O'CLOCK

San Francisco, May 17.—The life of Mrs. McKinley still hangs by a thread and while she made a remarkable rally yesterday afternoon and seemed to gain a trifle during the early hours of the night, none of the attending physicians believe that she can recover.

The president is disposed to blame himself for bringing Mrs. McKinley on the long trip, but friends say he should not do so as she seemed to derive benefit from the first four days of the journey.

People here criticize the action of the Ohio delegation yesterday in riding around town and tooting horns. They think the tooting might have been left out on account of Mrs. McKinley's condition.

Two Conflicting Reports. At seven o'clock word came from the Scott residence that Mrs. McKinley had slept healthily and that her pulse was stronger than it had been in two days. The general opinion among the attendants at her bedside is that a marked improvement is shown.

The early morning reports from the Scott residence vary. One says the patient slept healthily and that marked improvement is shown. The other reports that she is no better.

A Ray of Hope. At ten o'clock it was announced that Mrs. McKinley was so much improved that her physicians will not have another consultation until tonight.

Anxious Watching and Nursing. Yesterday was an anxious day for the watchers by her bedside. In the early morning, just before dawn, she sank rapidly, and it was feared that she would die before restoratives could be administered. But she responded to the powerful heart stimulants which were given to her, and during the day improved to such an extent that hope of her recovery, slight though it was, revived.

The new treatment for low vitality—salt injected into the veins—was administered to Mrs. McKinley, and she responded to the treatment. But her physicians fear she could not survive another sinking spell such as she experienced on Thursday morning. She suffered little during the day and bore up bravely. During her periods of consciousness her mind was clear. The president has been constantly at her bedside, and, although worn by his long vigil, is standing the awful strain with remarkable fortitude. Every banquet and public function planned in his honor here has been abandoned, and the city, with the president, watched Mrs. McKinley's battle for life. If Mrs. McKinley improves it is not believed that she will be able to travel before a week from the coming Monday. All the members of the cabinet, with the possible exception of Secretary Long, will remain here to the end.

APPOINTED ON STATE BOARD.

J. W. Thomas and George Wylie for Agricultural Commission. Madison, Wis., May 17.—Assemblyman John W. Thomas of Anson and former Assemblyman George Wylie of Leeds, were today re-appointed as members of the state board of agriculture. The term of the former will end in 1902 and that of the latter in 1904. The law requires that the board shall consist of one member from each congressional district, and two from the state at large. In re-appointing the state legislature threw these two members into new districts, and hence their reappointment.

WORK ON SIDETRACKS AND SWITCH YARDS

Extensive Changes and Improvements Made in the St. Paul Yards—New Connections Made

P. W. Ryan, with a force of men started grading for the new St. Paul side track to the Janesville Brick Co.'s yard.

Engineer Lloyd of the St. Paul company is here today with his plans for changing the tracks in the west end of the yard to accommodate the opening of the Janesville & Southeastern railroad.

On Monday next a force of about one hundred men will be put to work changing the tracks and extending the switch yard further west. This will be a good move for the Pleasant street crossing as it will do away with a great part of their switching in that vicinity.

The tracks in the neighborhood of the site for the new passenger station will also be put in better shape to handle the trains that will come in over the new line after June 3rd.

When the new passenger station is built the switch tracks that now extend from Franklin to Pleasant streets will be nearly all removed so that there will be nothing but two main tracks in that vicinity.

The company will at once commence the construction of a large coal shed which will be located near where the water tank now stands.

They will also straighten out their tracks in that vicinity so that there will be four main tracks, one for the Janesville and Southeastern, another for the Beloit line, another for the Mineral Point division and the fourth will be a traffic track.

New York, May 17.—The condition of Dr. Winfield Scott Schley, son of Rear Admiral Schley, was said at St. Luke's Hospital today to be improving.

DELIBERATE SUICIDE OF W. O. CLARKE; HUNG HIMSELF TO A BARN RAFTER

Tragedy at Milton Last Night—The Dead Man Had Not Been Well Mentally Since He Received a Sunstroke in 1899

Milton, Wis., May 17.—W. O. Clark, who has been stopping here for a month past hung himself at 7 o'clock last night in the barn of his sister, Mrs. F. A. Clarke. An hour before he said to Mrs. Clarke: "I will go to the postoffice and then go over to Helen's," another sister, Mrs. Dunn.

He was supposed to have gone there, but when his brother-in-law Mr. W. A. Clarke, went to the barn to feed his horse he found the deceased had tied a rope to a rafter and put a noose around his neck and then jumped down into the manger. When cut down by J. P. Bullis and F. T. Coon, Dr. Bennies gave it as his opinion that death occurred half an hour previous, an examination showing that the neck was broken.

Justice B. H. Stillman empaneled a coroner's jury consisting of J. P. Bullis, J. C. Sanborn, W. H. Weaver, P. S. Brown, J. H. Granger and L.

A. Babcock, who brought in a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Mr. Clarke was the victim of a sunstroke in the summer of 1899 and since that time has not been well, but his mental disturbance was not great enough to cause any alarm.

During the past winter he spent some time at the Kenosha Sanitarium at Kenosha and recently has been taking treatment of Dr. Hilland at Stoughton. He was about town as usual and exhibited no new symptoms, but the day before remarked to his brother-in-law that he "was getting tired of this"—referring to his physical condition.

His home is at Watworth where he owns considerable property and was a bachelor. His only brother, Frank B. Clarke, residing at St. Paul is traffic manager of the Great Northern and in addition to the sisters residing here another resides at Boston, Mass.

DEATH BLOW IS GIVEN TO PUGILISM; NO PRIZE FIGHTING IN WISCONSIN

Gov. La Follette's Decisive Orders Obeyed by the "Flugs" at Oshkosh—Contest Between Root and Carter Promptly Declared Off.

Madison, Wis., May 17.—If the sports who follow the fighting game for a business have been figuring on Wisconsin as the battle ground for prize fights they are doomed to disappointment, Governor La Follette's vigorous action last night in sending the adjutant general to Oshkosh to back up the local authorities with all the power of the state, if necessary, to stop the Root-Carter fight, is an index to his future course in this regard, and from statements made by the governor last evening it is clear that he does not propose to have any prize fighting in Wisconsin if he can help it.

Whatever power there is in local authorities will be exerted to prevent them will be exerted, and when this fails the power of the state will be used.

Governor Stopped the Fight. Oshkosh, Wis., May 17.—Prize fighters, promoters and followers of pugilism in general, driven from pillar to post from the Atlantic ocean to the Rocky mountains, made their stand here last night and lost. Sports from neighboring cities, from Milwaukee and from Chicago were arriving here all day to see "Kid" Carter and Jack Root pummel each other for the light heavy weight championship. They came with minds uneasy as to the attitude of Governor La Follette. It was not long before the whole troupe was flanked on the right and left with the governor's order to the adjutant general, the state's attorney and the sheriff, to stop the fight, and pugilism as a consequence is in full retreat.

There was no resistance to the governor's orders.

Death Blow to Pugilism.

The orders of the governor did not alone make the local promoters shaky, but cold chills took hold of those who have interests elsewhere. It is regarded as a deathblow to pugilism, not alone in Wisconsin, but in the Middle West, but in the whole country as well. It is regarded that Governor La Follette simply put a quietus to the sport which was made groggy by Governor Nash of Ohio.

Fight promoters in Connecticut, Illinois and other states are leading a strenuous existence and the same holds true in Colorado and California, practically the only two states where limited round bouts under the guise of boxing are permitted.

The news may travel west and betting is even that Colorado and California will close their doors on pugilists, and should this happen the last nail will have been driven in the pugilistic coffin.

CELEBRATE ADVENT OF 20TH CENTURY

General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia—Dr. Minton Elected Moderator.

Philadelphia, May 17.—The commissioners of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church this morning began a day's celebration of the advent of the twentieth century. California and New York entered into a competition for the moderatorship in the Presbyterian general assembly yesterday, each presenting one of its best men for that office. California won the contest, Rev. Henry Collin Minton, D. D., of San Francisco being elected, defeating Rev. George T. Purves, D. D., LL. D., of New York. There were 613 votes cast, of which Dr. Minton received 337 and Dr. Purves 276.

The report of the treasurer, Miss S. F. Lincoln of New York, showed the receipts for the year to be $357,201, of which amount $60,353 was designated for the board of missions for freemen and $296,833 for the women's board of home missions. The disbursements amounted to $321,581, exceeding the receipts by $24,747. The permanent fund amounts to $17,000.

He was a native of England and came to Beloit from there. He was a mason by trade. He leaves a wife and two adopted children, Mr. Day of this city and Mrs. Dickerson of Cedar Rapids, Ia. Mr. Andrews had many warm friends in this city. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon, from the house at 2 o'clock.

WISCONSIN TO PAY ITS HONEST DEBTS

Holders of the Keeley Cure Orders Will Be Reimbursed—The Bill Becomes a Law.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 17.—A large number of people in Waukesha, Milwaukee and other Wisconsin cities who have for a number of years held the so-called "Keeley orders," hoping that the state would do them justice are rejoicing today, Governor La Follette having signed the bill to reimburse the innocent holders of the paper.

A few years ago there was a law on the statute books which permitted the sending of inebriates to the Waukesha institution at the expense of the county, when the inebriate or his friends were unable to foot the bills themselves, it being provided that men, on being cured, should, if possible, reimburse the county which had incurred the expense.

Hundreds of men were cured in this way, but finally certain county officials thought that the Keeley company was making money too fast, so they originated a project to put a stop to the practice. The court's agreed and it was stopped, the counties refusing not only to continue the commitments, but refusing to pay the bills, and the Keeley company and its friends who had cashed some of the orders lost $60,000 all told. The claims that were held to be invalid will be paid, according to the law just passed, at the rate of 50 cents on the dollar.

Most of the money will go to Waukesha merchants who took the county orders in payment for provisions, coal, etc. The state will foot the bill, believing that it is its duty to protect the innocent holders of the paper who took it before the Keeley law was declared unconstitutional.

MORE TROOPS ARE SENT TO ALBANY

Strike of the Street Car Employees is Daily Becoming More Serious—Orders to Shoot.

Albany, May 17.—More troops have been ordered to come here. The strike of the street car employees is daily becoming more serious. Negotiations to bring about a settlement are still under way. The common council will meet this afternoon to adopt a resolution calling upon the company to remove the troops from the city.

At nine o'clock the soldiers took up their posts in front of the barracks. Their orders for the day were: "First use the butts of your rifles; second bayonets; third, bullets."

A batch of union men arrived from Buffalo this morning, but there were no demonstrations.

At ten o'clock a number of cars were started out and the officials say that practically the entire system will be in operation before night. The Ninth regiment from New York City arrived here at noon.

BRITAIN PLANS THE LARGEST WARSHIPS

Three Vessels of 18,000 Tons—Novel Change in Armament to Be Given a Test.

London, May 17.—The Telegraph says it learns that the admiralty will lay down in 1901 three battleships of 18,000 tons each, which will be the largest and most powerful vessels of their class ever built. Each will carry four fifty-ton 12-inch guns, and ten instead of twelve 6-inch rapid fire guns.

The reduction in the number of six-inch guns is due to the introduction of an entirely new weapon—namely: the 7.5-inch wire wound breech loader, which is adopted because 8-inch guns are too heavy for rapid work and something is needed between the twelve and six inches. Each ship will cost fully £1,250,000.

CAUSE IS A MYSTERY

Body Discovered by a Little Girl in the Rooms of a Strange Doctor.

SORROW IN COAL REGIONS

New York, May 17.—The body of Father E. S. Phillips, the noted priest of Hazleton, Pa., who came to this city two months ago to plead with Pierpont Morgan in the interests of the Pennsylvania coal miners, was discovered last night by a little girl in the apartments of "Dr." Kirt Stanley.

The priest had been dead at least five days but the cause of his death cannot now be determined.

Stanley was placed under arrest. Phillips had been missing three weeks. Stanley said this morning that he and the priest in company with two girls had gone to his rooms on the night of May 8 and drank whiskey.

Whether or not the girls placed anything in his drinks he does not know. He had not seen him since that time. Stanley was born in San Francisco.

Mysterious Blonde Woman

A mysterious blonde woman, tall and handsome now figures in the case. It is believed to be Stanley's common law wife. She has not been seen for several days. It is thought she lured the priest to her rooms. The coroner strongly suspects that knock out drops caused the priest's death.

Miners Mourn Phillips.

Hazleton, Pa., May 17.—The announcement of Father Phillips' tragic death has thrown the entire coal region into a furor of excitement. The dead priest was the most influential man that the Pennsylvania coal fields had ever known. His influence over the miners was great and it was through his efforts that the great strike was averted in March. It was also due to his counsel that the miners refrained from becoming violent on more than one occasion.

MRS. LILLIAN N. M. STEVENS.

(Miss Willard's Successor as President of the National W. C. T. U.)

Mrs. Stevens has always been a woman suffragist. When in 1876 Miss Willard introduced into the white ribbon ranks the unwelcome discussion of the ballot for women as the most helpful method of temperance reform, and led the argument for four years in the great conventions Mrs. Stevens was one of her staunchest and most helpful allies, and it was at this time that their friendship was cemented by that unbreakable bond forged in the furnace of contradiction.

Mrs. Stevens has for years been the Maine representative in the national conference of charities and Correction and in 1892 she was appointed one of the lady managers of the World's Columbian Exposition, and had entire charge of preparing Maine's exhibit of charities and correction which appeared in the Anthropological building at the fair. For three years she was treasurer of the National Council of Women of the United States and upon voluntarily retiring from that position was given a place in the cabinet of the council and given the portfolio of Moral Reform.

MORGAN FARM IN TOWN OF TURTLE IS NOW A MINIATURE FAIRYLAND

An Army of Skilled Workmen Are Fast Completing the Wonderful Place—Vivid Description of Same—Mansion Will Cost $90,000.

A Beloit Free Press reporter spent a day this week on the Morgan farm and writes as follows:

Vast strides have been made in the work during the winter and since the warm weather came, and what was before a common place farm, is now a miniature fairyland and becoming more like the real thing every day. An army of skilled workmen are bringing about this result. A trip over the farm will be of interest to the reader:

Entering from the main road, the first thing that strikes the eye is the boulevard stretching into the distance. This is not finished, but enough gravel has been crushed into atoms to make it quite nice to drive over. The boulevard is twelve feet wide throughout its length, but at the main entrance to the farm it is eighteen feet wide.

Shortly after entering one passes the temporary home of the deer and other wild animals with which the farm is stocked. Then for a distance of a quarter of a mile the boulevard winds through waving fields of rye and farm products, all planted by Mr. Morgan's employees with the most modern machinery that money could buy. Out of the rye fields the road goes into a fringe of woodland on a bluff overlooking Turtle creek, which is wide at this point.

A sort distance from the boulevard and down near the creek is a thing that is of much interest, for it is the big crushing machine, driven by a steam engine and which provides all the gravel for the roads and buildings. The residence seen in the distance is built of gravel crushed by this machine. It turns out the pebbles in four sizes ranging from pieces as large as an egg to that resembling sand.

Following the boulevard through the woods one crosses bridges of the most quaint architecture, all built of cement, and over the bluff and across the creek can be seen the golf course, which would delight an enthusiast. About a mile from the entrance to the farm is the residence of Mr. Morgan.

It is, as before mentioned, constructed entirely of gravel taken from the farm's own resources and mixed with cement, and is a most imposing looking pile, with its grand colonades, porches, and tiled roof. But not until one gets inside does its true magnificence dawn upon the beholder. Here everything is perfect in arrangement, material and effect. Everything is rich, yet simple.

Not an ornament offends the eye, but the designs are perfect. The rooms and floors are all finished with quarter sawed white Tennessee oak which is polished to an extent that almost reminds one of walking on a mirror. The greatest artist in the world could not produce the effect of the grain in the floors and wood work. Every door in the house is the single panel veneered style and the effect is rich to a degree. The floor is known as the French parquet style.

The house is lighted with both gas and electricity, heated with steam and perfectly appointed with regard to plumbing. There is a billiard room, farm office, two large dining rooms—one inside and one on a porch overlooking Turtle creek—a sitting room and library combined, and the big kitchen and servants' quarters, besides a number of other spacious rooms and a multitude of cozy workers on the first floor. Upstairs there are thirteen large sleeping rooms reached by a grand hallway that is in itself a marvelous piece of work. The furnishings on the second floor are just the same as on the first, and in fact are the same throughout the house.

There are eight bedrooms that are furnished with baths, and fifteen rooms in the building that are supplied with plumbing. All of the rooms are connected by an ingenious arrangement of speaking tubes which make it possible to press a properly labeled button and communicate with any one in any part of the house. The porches and verandas are all supplied with old Andrew Jackson hickory furniture. The walls of every room in the house are stained different colors and partly covered with burlap.

When it is stated that this mansion alone will cost Mr. Morgan nearly $90,000, some idea may be gained of its magnificence. Architect Kiehnel says the work on the inside will be completed in three weeks, and the outside will be done in about six weeks. Mr. Morgan and his charming family, however, are living in a completed portion of the residence.

Three hundred yards from the residence, along the boulevard, is the power house, which is also a striking and beautiful piece of architecture of the Colonial style. Here is where the light and heat for the residence is manufactured, and the machines that do the work are the finest that can be purchased. An artesian well well, two hundred feet deep, supplies the water, and everything—water, heat, electric wires, gas and long distance telephone wires goes underground inside enamel pipes to the big house.

The water pumping machine has a capacity of 2,000 gallons an hour and up in the tower of the building is an immense Fairbanks, Morse & Co. tank that is a reservoir for 6,000 gallons of water. The power house is a most interesting place to visit.

A short distance further on are the temporary cattle barns, and near there the permanent cattle barns will be erected in a half circle. Work on the main barn will be completed within three weeks. The route of the boulevard swings around here to connect again with the main road and the journey through the farm as it is at present is finished.

These assertions of what Christian Science promulgates, bearing no resemblance to the facts and teachings of this religion, will never suppress it; neither should they be indulged in or countenanced in differing Christian denominations. When tempted to build up one religion by tearing down another, it is well to remember Jesus' command, "What is that to thee? Follow thou Me."

Work on Canning Factory.

The nine and a half foot foundation walls in the canning factory are completed and ready for the brick work, with the exception of a small portion of the east corner. The foundations for all the other buildings are completed and ready for the walls. Mr. Hohenadel states that there is not the slightest doubt that the buildings will be completed and in running order by the time the produce is ready for delivery. For some days there has been some doubt in the minds of the promoters as to whether they could get ready in time, but from the way things look now they believe there is no question about their being ready.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease it requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

entertainment of the convention to bear would also be glad to receive offers of carriages to be used in taking the delegates to Forest Home, where the late Frances Willard spent her childhood. To those admirers of the great leader who come from other parts of the state this visit will be considered a rare treat.

Among the many practical things which are being done for the benefit of humanity no work is more interesting than the hospital work. People are constantly asking "What does the W. C. T. U. do?" No better response can be given to this question than to give some of the vital facts concerning the hospital which is supported by the W. C. T. U. and is conducted on temperance principles.

The close of the fourteenth year of the Frances E. Willard National Temperance Hospital finds it in its new home, situated at 161 South Sangamon street, surrounded by grounds extending one hundred and fifty feet on Sangamon street, and for a whole block west to Morgan street, two hundred and seventy feet, on Jackson Boulevard. This fine driveway connects Lake Front with the great boulevard system on the West side. The location is convenient of access to railroad depots and other places of business—a veritable park of itself, a life-promoting restful spot of beauty.

The formal opening of the hospital at its new home occurred on May 17, 1900. About one hundred and fifty guests were received. An unexpected part of the program was the arrival of two patients, an omen of work for the future. The mass meeting to welcome the hospital to its new quarters, a week later, held in the elegant auditorium of the First Congregational church, so often placed at the disposal of the cause of temperance, was an occasion to which every friend of non-alcoholic medication in our land would gladly have been invited. It was a popular vindication and emphasis of the Temperance Hospital work. The brilliant chandeliers in their radiant beauty vied with the luxurious palms which decorated the platform in suggesting the prosperity of a righteous cause when man works with God for humanity. Judge O. N. Carter presided, and in his opening remarks spoke of the need of more hospitals in Chicago, presenting important facts which had come to his knowledge in connection with his duties as judge of Cook county.

The first payment on the endowment of a Mary Townhart memorial bed has been received from the state W. C. T. U. of New York. The Illinois W. C. T. U. free bed and the one supported by Mrs. Mary M. Hobbs make possible a much-needed charitable work. In Illinois, such local unions as are willing and able, send one dollar each year to be applied for their hospital bed to the State Treasury. From thence it is forwarded to the hospital treasurer. Will not many states in the current and coming years join Illinois and New York in maintaining free beds? The Young Woman's Unions and Loyal Temperance Leagues are working toward such results and their donations are not only a help but also an education of those who will soon take charge of this great enterprise. A gift of twenty-five dollars will constitute the giver a life member and five dollars an annual member of the Hospital Association.

CAILLES MAY SURRENDER

The Filipino Outlaw Negotiating with General Sumner.

HE IS SAID TO BE WOUNDED.

Aguinaldo Remains Indoors Voluntarily at Manila—Receives Many Letters and Offers from Museum Managers—Re-enforcements to Be Sent to Aid Kobe.

Manila, May 17.—It is believed that General Cailles, who has been declared an outlaw, has been wounded. He has been negotiating with General Sumner for three days looking to surrender. The Federal press and ex-General Malvar are urging him to give himself up. General MacArthur declines to define the status of Aguinaldo. He says that, though he is in a sense a prisoner, he is enjoying liberty in his residence and the grounds attached thereto. He is, however, under guard. He voluntarily remains indoors. He has not descended to the ground floor of his residence since he occupied the place. His mail grows daily. He receives large numbers of letters and pamphlets. He has received offers of a large salary, from museum managers in the United States, who propose giving bonds for his safe return to Manila. All his communications are censored. The Philippine commissioners are considering civil and criminal codes for the civil government of Manila. They have establishments in Surigao, Cagayan and Mindanao. A meeting of the commission will be held Monday to consider amendments to the provincial bill to obtain additional revenue by transferring the stamp tax and the timber and inland revenues from the central government to the municipalities. It is proposed to impose an annual cedula tax of $1 on all males under 55 years of age. The question of amending the municipal code will also be considered. Preparations are being made to send the Tenth Infantry to re-enforce General Kobe, who, in co-operation with the navy, will immediately occupy the island of Paragua, which is peaceful and commercially important. General MacArthur is hastening the completion of his plan for the garrisoning of the various towns. He is now awaiting the arrival of the Ninth regiment, a portion of which has been assigned to occupy the ungarrisoned ports of Mindoro, where the adventurer, Arthur Howard, who is supposed to be a deserter from the California artillery, is reported to be acting as governor. He is said to control 200 outlaws and 100 insurgent riflemen. The island is unimportant from a military point of view, but is valuable commercially.

Quaker Tonic Tablets

Dr. Calvin Crane's Quaker Tonic is a compound of rare and costly drugs which are not carried in the average drug-store stock, but which are universally known and approved by medical scientists. It's a family remedy. It's a remedy for the ills of both youth and old age. It's an all the year-round remedy. Its remarkable curative action on the kidneys, liver, and bowels, is prompt, pleasant and permanent. It restores the vital forces. It searches and cleanses every corner of the system. It builds up every bodily function. It's the only specific known for the lingering after-effects of La Grippe.

Don't all speak at once. Use 400 lbs. per acre and use it every year till you have raised the grade to No. 1—less acres and more fertilizer will do the business—I intend to keep it on hand, but your order should be placed early to be sure of a supply, as the demand will be largely increased this year.

Going to Build

Whether you contemplate building at an early date or not, you should have a copy of "THE BAKER'S COMPLETE CATALOGUE OF BUILDINGS." It is the most complete book of Architectural Designs published. Nearly 150 pages, printed on heavy cream paper. It is not a theoretical book. Every design shown is from the actual working plans of buildings that have been erected under the direction of our supervising architect. Consequently it is practical in every respect. It embraces subjects from an attractive cottage at a few hundred dollars to a modern, up-to-date residence, costing many thousands of dollars. The perspectives are full-page illustrations while the floor plans are half-page sketches. The descriptions are complete and easily understood; in fact it is an ideal book of practical, up-to-date designs and intelligent descriptions. The regular price is $2.00 but we would like to present you a copy free of charge. If you could call at our office we would take pleasure in presenting you a copy free of charge. As this is not possible, we will send you a copy by express, charges prepaid upon receipt of only 25¢, to cover cost of transportation.

RAG TIME MUSIC.

A musical convention in Denver, represented by classical talent from all parts of the country, denounces "rag time" music as "rot" and says it has got to go.

This convention of aesthetic musicians attempts to consign popular music to everlasting silence, without consulting popular opinion on the subject. In other words, an effort is made to educate popular sentiment up to the standard of classical appreciation, by one turn of the crank.

This class of reformers, not only in music, but in almost everything else, have frequently been attempted by reformers, with but one result, and that is disappointment to the reformers.

It is perhaps to be regretted that popular taste is of so low an order in many departments of life.

It would be a nice thing if every church building in the land was crowded every Sunday morning, with devout worshippers.

If every lecture platform appealed to the masses.

If every grand opera stirred the pulse of humanity.

If all that is high and elevating, inspired the masses, rather than the classes.

But facts are stubborn things, and the fact remains that people cannot be driven very successfully. The minstrel and vaudeville may not be elevating, but they are entertaining, and the catchy song and rag time music, contribute largely to the popularity of this class of entertainment.

The same throng that spends a restful evening, beating time to the bewitching music, would sleep through a recital and be bored by a classical program.

The Denver convention holds up its hands in holy horror, at the proposition, in spite of the fact that it is as true as gospel.

Humanity is peculiar, and very matter of fact. The average mortal is not aesthetic, or classical. His ear is not quick enough to detect discords, or appreciate the finest harmonies. He would rather listen to "The Swanee River" than Italian opera, and the coon song and banjo than Mozart's best creation wrought out by deft fingers on the organ.

Sad but painfully apparent. The Denver convention may call it "rot" and abolish it from their repertoire, but it will go on more ragged and frolicsome than ever, just so long as the rank and file of humanity are willing to put their time and money against it.

Mrs. T. A. Smith smashed a few Kansas saloons with her hatchet but there are several left. Denver may smash a few "rag time" violins with a resolution, but there are others, and they will continue to play for grand stand performers.

When the great procession joins the choir invisible, there will be no friction between the classical and popular, but frail humanity has failed to discover a retreat, this side of that fair land, where such conditions are possible.

PUSH, DON'T SHOVE.

During the past five years Janesville has made no especial effort to increase her population or secure new industries or improvements. The result of this indifference became apparent when the census was taken. Janesville was among the tail-enders in the matter of growth—a fact to which none of us could "point with pride." Now, however, a new order of things has been inaugurated, and the future is bright. The council has "taken the bull by the horns," so to speak, and proposes to do something. In this respect the council should have the support of every good and progressive citizen, so don't kick, unless you feel that it is absolutely necessary and then kick as lightly as possible. If it is hard work for you to meet your taxes, make a little personal sacrifice—rain water is cheaper than city water, walking is cheaper than riding, tobacco is worse than useless and whisky an all around curse. One cigar less a day will be a big help toward the tax paid by the average citizen.

But don't try to hold the city back. If you can't afford to own property, don't do it. Live within your means in this respect as in all others.

The council is on the right track and its course meets the approval of a very large majority. Let the advance continue. There is always room at the top, but no one ever got there by sitting on the ground and complaining of those who sought to climb up.

EVERY-DAY HEROISM.

The world is quick to recognize heroism, when the man or woman who performs the act is prominent, or in a position that commands attention. But the heroes of everyday life, do not all belong to this class and some of them are so obscure, that they are not known beyond their immediate surroundings. One of these poor heroes lived at Richmond, Kentucky, and no one knew of the great heart that he possessed, until he was tested. His name was William Phelps, a colored laborer. He boarded with his friend, Stansbury, and a few days ago the two men were engaged in cleaning out a boiler. By some blunder the steam was turned on and the two men rushed for the ladder at the manhole. Phelps was the first to reach it, but, stepping aside, with a spirit of self sacrifice worthy of the noble heart within him, said to his friend, "Go first, you have a wife." He went and was saved, and a moment later Phelps was taken out with just enough strength to say before he died, "It was Jim's right to go first, he's married."

That's heroism, not for applause or fame, but for the pure self sacrificing love of humanity, the greatest love that ever came to a human heart.

This spirit of heroism, that isn't always called upon to sacrifice life, is not so rare and uncommon as many suppose. There is no love without sacrifice. It is common in every true home, and practiced by every honest, sincere heart. The severe test that came to Phelps, the colored hero, may never be applied, but the spirit that prompted it is not lacking, in a degree that is equal to the emergencies of every-day experience.

It is well for the country that faith in "Dowie" has been shaken to an extent that promises to weaken, and in time, overthrow the structure that he has erected. Next to Swineford, no leader in modern times, has gained such control of his disciples. Dowieism is more dangerous than the former, because more wide spread, and because the power of the leader was delegated to other leaders. This class of fanaticism is a disgrace to the Christian religion.

The fact that Tillman proposes to retire McLaughlin is evidence that the New South is awakening to the fact that she has nothing in common with Populism. McLaughlin's democracy is more worthy of the steel of republicanism than Tillman's conglomeration ever will be.

In view of the fact that the steel trust manufactures seventy-five per cent. of the total output of the United States, it stands to reason that the tariff on iron and steel helps Mr. Schwab's income more than it helps the "Infant Industry" that he represents.

It is evident that the big universities have a small college to reckon with, since Beloit has shown them all how to play winning ball. Beloit has the best record in base ball of any western educational institution.

Powderly's recommendation in regard to immigrants should receive the favorable consideration of congress, because it would determine the fitness of immigrants before they are allowed to start for this country.

The Chicago board of education has forbidden the public presentation of flowers and other gifts to graduates on commencement day, would appear to be a wise move as such gifts are seldom equally distributed.

The thugs, thieves and crooks that have made Chicago famous are leaving that city in droves because of the rigid rules made by the chief of police. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

An Omaha man named Barrett has married twin sisters of his brother and thus becomes his own brother-in-law, but there are no indications that he won't be able to bear it.

The fact that Kansas needs 20,000 men to harvest this year's crop as against 15,000 required last year will hardly be considered worthy of a "display head" in the Hon. W. J. Bryan's paper.

When the Chicago authorities get through with "Dr." Dowie, that illustrious gentleman can pat his injured sides and try his "faith" on his own hurts.

If Pat Crowe would only kidnap the Sultan of Turkey, Mr. Cudahy might be induced to forgive him.

Mayor Harrison's administration has one redeeming feature in Corporation Counsel Walker.

Elks' Convention.

The convention of the B. P. O. E., to be held in Milwaukee July 23-25 will be of interest to the local fraternity, many of whom expect to attend. Before going call at The Gazette's job room and leave an order for some of the very tasty cards we are getting out for this occasion.

LIVELY TIMES IN TOBACCO CIRCLES

NEW PLANTS COMING ALONG NICELY THESE DAYS.

Some Fears of a Frost—Transplanting Will Begin June 1—Still Buying the 1900 Crop—Large Amount of Leaf Delivered at Local Warehouses This Week.

Doings in tobacco circles are quite lively and there is much interesting gossip both concerning the 1900 crop and the bright promises for the 1901 crop. The new plants are coming along nicely although the few days of cold weather was scarcely conducive to their growth. On one or two nights the mercury dropped to within a few degrees of the frost danger line and this caused considerable apprehension. A sharp frost would not be a welcome visitor to tobacco growers and buyers especially drew a long breath of relief when the weather began to warm up again.

Some of the farmers intend to begin transplanting about the first of June if the weather continues to be favorable. In many instances the plants are well advanced. The earliest plants boast leaves about the size of a silver dime.

Local dealers are still buying the 1900 crop and a large amount of the purchases were delivered at the warehouses during the week. Farmers' wagons loaded with the bundled leaf are quite conspicuous on the streets every day and have been for some time past.

G. H. Rumrill, Joseph Grundy, Thomas Welch, C. J. Jones, J. A. Ryan and L. B. Carle & Son are among the most active buyers. Prices remain about the same, from 3 to 7 cents, according to quality.

Lucius Greene, of Reading, Pa., the eastern member of the local firm of J. L. and M. F. Green, is in the city. One of his missions is to settle some outstanding accounts which have risen by reason of the rejection of several crops which were bought for the eastern firm for whom the local firm acts as the Wisconsin agent. The local firm has decided to accept all of the crops which were rejected by the eastern firm and will purchase them for their own use at the Janesville warehouse, paying for them according to the contracts made in the interest of the eastern firm.

The leaf which has been packed in cases is warming up and beginning to sweat in a satisfactory manner.

A number of the buyers are beginning to look around a little and considerable 1900 tobacco that has been unpacked is being looked over with the prospect of its changing hands.

Tobacco men are very much pleased with the 1900 crop and say that there is but very little damage in it. Some of the most conservative packers in the state predict that the percentage of damage will be smaller than ever before although it is yet too early to make a definite estimate. This shows that the statement of a 60 per cent. damage which caused such indignation in tobacco circles a few months ago was without foundation.

Soverhill and one of two other dealers are nearly through sorting. Others complain of a shortage of help; a condition of affairs for which the continued dry weather of several weeks ago is largely responsible.

Much of the help in the sorting rooms which came from out of town went home when the warehouses were forced to shut down their sorting rooms because the farmers were unable to handle their tobacco and bring it to the warehouses. This out of town help in most cases did not return when the work started up again, having, in all probability, secured employment elsewhere.

Nobs on the Hill Indignant.

An agent for oleomargarine has been visiting the homes of residents of the Third ward offering his goods for sale. He has stated to several of the residents that he has been supplying several of the most prominent families of the hill with his goods and that they have been using it in the place of butter for the last three years. Some of the people whose names the agent gave, were asked about it and deny that they have ever done anything of the sort. They are considerably worked up over the matter and would like to have the gentleman call and make his statements good. It is an old trick for men of this kind to make use of the names of prominent people to get a market for their goods.

Samuel Bailey Dead.

Edwin T. Foote received word today from Dr. S. G. Bailey of Chicago, a former resident of this city, announcing the death of his son, Samuel Bailey, which occurred in St. Louis. Dr. Bailey's message stated that the body would be buried in Oak Hill cemetery and would arrive in this city tomorrow morning at 10:10. A brief service will be held in the chapel in the cemetery. Dr. Bailey has many friends in this city, he having resided here for many years.

The entertainment for the benefit of the Adams school piano fund takes place at the High school building tonight and should be largely attended.

MISS M'CLERNAN WON GREEK FELLOWSHIP

Miss Marie McClernan of this city, has been awarded the Greek fellowship at the University of Wisconsin, winning the honor over the young man who held the honor last year. The fellowship is awarded by the vote of the members of the faculty.

Miss McClernan, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McClernan, has accomplished wonderful things in an educational way. Graduating from the Janesville High school in the class of '95, at the age of fourteen, her early education having been acquired at St. Joseph's convent, she remained at home two years and then went to the university of Wisconsin. She completed the course in three years and graduated with the highest honors last June.

She was elected to membership in the Phi Beta Kappa, an honorary society, membership which is attained only by high scholarship and progressive university spirit. The membership of the Phi Beta Kappa is determined by the faculty and to be one of its members is one of the highest honors in the university life.

At her graduation Miss McClernan was chosen by the faculty as the winner of the scholarship in Greek which besides the high honor was equivalent to $175 if she chose to accept the post graduate course. She gladly availed herself of the opportunity for further study and this year she has been a post graduate student.

The fellowship to which she has just been elected gives her another opportunity and incentive to continue her research and is equivalent to $400 and she is required to teach Greek one hour each day. One of the members of the university faculty says that Miss McClernan is considered one of the most remarkable students who ever attended the university. She has a wonderful mind and is a young woman of brilliant intellectuality.

The development of Miss McClernan's talents has not been one-sided and she is a musician of rare ability. For several years she has been the organist at St. Patrick's church, and she has continued to fill her position during her university career, making the trip from Madison every Friday night and returning on the early morning train Monday.

During the past week she has come down from the university every night to play for the mission services. This keeping up of her duties as church organist in another city from her school work has been no small undertaking and one that few students could have done successfully.

John Mosher, Sixty Days.

John Mosher was before Judge Field of the municipal court this morning and plead guilty to the charge of being drunk and disorderly. As this is a common occurrence with him Judge Field gave him sixty days in the county jail, so he would be thoroughly sober by the time he was released. James Casey was also brought before the court charged with committing assault and battery on Charles McElroy and was fined $1 and costs in all $3.80, which he paid.

The State Bank of Oronochee, Wis., is responsible and asks a careful scrutiny as to its promoters. Is recommended by four governors and many banks. Pays four per cent. on six months and 5 per cent. on 12 months time deposits.

Prospects for The "Evil Eye."

Manager Myers has been meeting with flattering success with his subscription list for "The Evil Eye." Naturally it will be impossible for him to see personally all those who desire to have their names on the subscription list and thus secure the first chance at the seats if the production is secured. Any persons who desire their names included in the subscription sale can notify Manager Myers by mail and he will put their names on the list or call on them as they prefer.

In the Circuit Court

The case of J. L. Bostwick et al. vs. the New York Life Insurance company is on trial today in the circuit court. The plaintiffs claim they agreed with the agent for a certain kind of policy and paid the premium. When the policy came they supposed it was what they contracted for and did not read the conditions. After a while they investigated the matter and found that it was not what they agreed to take. They now bring action to have the policies annulled and their money returned. Ruger & Ruger appeared for the plaintiffs and Fethers, Jeffris and Mount for the defense.

Milton, Wis., May 17, 1901.

"Lest you forget we say it yet" that the King's Daughters' fair and musical entertainment in June for the benefit of Milton college is bound to be the event of the year. Therefore you are expected to countenance it, not only by your presence, but with a well-filled purse that opens easily.

This village was represented at the Congregational missionary meeting in Janesville on Thursday.

Miss Lucy Walker has decided to make her future home with her sister, Mrs. Hurlbut, at Evanston, Ill., and the many Milton friends of Miss Walker regret that she has decided to leave Milton.

Remember the King's Daughters' benefit next Tuesday evening. You will never have another opportunity of hearing the lady esquimaux lecturer and therefore you cannot afford to miss it.

Howard Saunders has improved the appearance of his father's residence very much by the removal of the hedge in front of the lot.

Mrs. W. W. Clarke, who has been spending the past five months in California returned Wednesday.

Mrs. E. L. Davis came back from Shawano Wednesday.

The college ball team was up against it good and plenty at White-water this week.

Dr. C. E. Crandall returns to Milton this week and will live in his Madison avenue house.

All small fruit promises an abundant harvest.

L. A. D. of C. D. will furnish ice cream before and after the school entertainment May 31.

At the age of one year, nine months and nine days, little Gladys, after a few hours of severe sickness, went into that sleep from which no one ever awakens, on Wednesday morning, May 8. All that medical skill or loving hands could do was done, but God took her to dwell with him where she will meet the loving ones when they, too, cross over. The funeral was held at the home Friday at 2 o'clock. Rev. Herbert spoke many words of comfort to the sorrow stricken family. The choir, Messrs. Brown and Stark and Messrs. Weirick and Overton, sang three beautiful selections and amid a bank of lovely flowers she was laid to rest. The pall bearers were Leslie Bradt, Paul McGregor, and LaRue and Gerald Stark. The bereaved family have the sympathy of all in their sorrow.

S. Cuckow was bringing a plow from a neighbor's when the horses scared in crossing the railroad track and a broken wheel resulted.

Eben Van Allen's team of four horses took fright when dragging and had it all their own way until one of them struck a fence post and fell. A few slight scratches on one of the horses was the extent of the damage.

The quilt sale and social was very successful except that the supply of ice cream fell short. Enough will be on hand next time. Mrs. D. E. Jones was the highest bidder for the quilt, at $5.50. It is quite a prize, having 4550 names, most of them present and former residents of this vicinity.

BABY'S BUSINESS

A healthy baby is comfortable; and that is enough for a baby. His business in life is to grow.

Aside from acute diseases, his food is the cause of most of his troubles. But Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil delivers him from it.

He isn't sick; only a little hitch, somewhere, in his machine for turning food into growth.

It is a great thing to do, for a baby, to help him over a hitch with mere food—the emulsion is food that has the tact to get there.

The tact to get there is medicine.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

MUSICAL EVENT AT S. SOVERHILL HOME

Piano Recital Given by the Pupils of Mrs. W. T. Sherer—A Very Fine Program.

There was a delightful musical event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Soverhill, 111 Washington street, last evening, the occasion being a piano recital given by the pupils of Mrs. W. T. Sherer. Those who enjoyed it were the relatives of the pupils and the audience of about fifty people was a very appreciative one and took a deep pleasure in the creditable work of the young musicians.

The parlors of the Soverhill home were beautified with bouquets of fragrant flowers and looked very cheery and attractive. The young ladies who took part in the program also made a pretty picture in their dainty gowns and they all did nicely their share towards the entertainment of their friends.

The program was one of excellence and it was very well balanced, each young pianist giving evidence of natural ability and of careful and intelligent training. They were a great credit to their talented teacher.

The pupils were assisted by Mrs. Christine Hawley who was in excellent voice and sang beautifully, her accompaniments being played by Mrs. Sherer.

The violin solo by Wina Soverhill and the string quartet by the Misses Soverhill were especially fine numbers and were a great addition to the program which was as follows:

HORSES ROAMING ABOUT THE STREETS

Residents of North Jackson street in the First ward are making a vigorous kick on the number of horses that are roaming about the streets in that part of the city. It is a general practice about the city for people to take down their fences and it is very annoying to have a well kept lawn cut up by horses that have no business to be at large.

There is an ordinance against animals running at large and the police should see that the law is strictly enforced.

One lady on North Jackson street who has paid out a large sum of money to get her lawn in first-class shape said that for the last three days she had been obliged at different times to drive loose horses off from her premises.

TEACHERS MEET AT MADISON MAY 31

Superintendents and Principals Will Go to State Capital On Invitation of State University.

By invitation of the university of Wisconsin, the superintendents, principals and teachers in the high schools of this state and vicinity will meet in Madison, Friday, May 31, and Saturday, June 1, to discuss subjects of mutual interest pertaining to education.

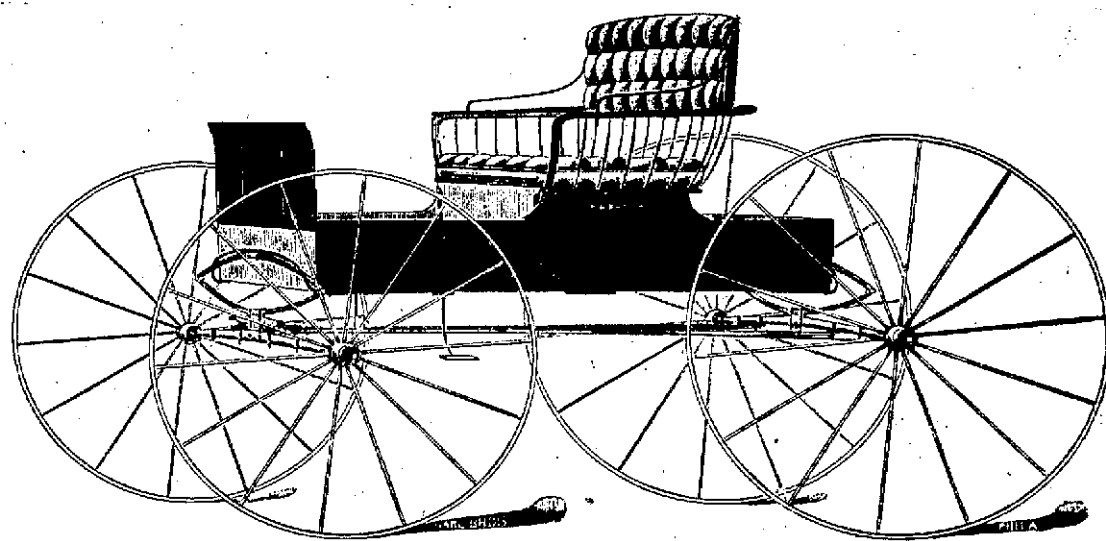

The meeting will be especially attractive to teachers because of the contests to be held at Madison at the same time. The interscholastic athletic event will be held at Camp Randall, Saturday, June 1, at two o'clock and this interscholastic declamatory contest will be held at the Library hall the preceding afternoon at three o'clock.

The program arranged is a very fine one and Supt. D. D. Mayne will speak on the system of exemption from examinations in the high schools. Saturday morning will be devoted to three conference programs, science and mathematics, English and history and German, Latin and Greek.

On Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock the faculty of the university will tender a banquet to the visiting superintendents, principals and teachers at Keeley's hall.
